New Business

Royal Correspondence: Last December Prince Charles and Camilla's Christmas card featured the two of them in a vintage MG-TD. Egged on by Al Munro, outgoing president Jim Martin wrote to the Royal Couple, enclosing a club brochure and requesting a card for the club if they had any left over. That letter was read, along with a pleasant reply from the couple's secretary expressing regrets but wishing our club a happy new year. Communications were turn over to Pete Moffett to be posted on the club website.

Open Discussion

Garry Lemon showed us a printout of exhibition dates at the Niagara-on-the-Lake Museum for a display of quilts called a "A Piece of Her Mind". He talked about the background of many of the pieces.

Linda Collacut and Liz Ozadec discussed the menu options for the club now that J.J. Kapp's reno is complete. After discussion it was agreed that the club would use the pub/bowling alley menu. This can be altered down the road if we change our minds.

David Jones discussed the Ancaster Show and suggested members come to it in their cars.

50/50 Draw - Herb McKay - $53.50 was won by Joy Bowman. She suggested Cat's Caboose in St Catharines for the destination next Tues.

Motion to adjourn by Al Munro, seconded by Liz Ozadec.

Recorded by Cheryl Martin on behalf of Tammy Goddard, secretary.
